Please see the Board's proposals on pp.1-2 above.

2. In a D.O. dated 9-7-51, the Government of India were informed that this Government were willing to spare the services of Sri S. Venkatachalam Naidu, Deputy Collector for appointment^{ment} as Asst. Commissioner and District Magistrate, Coorg. India have not yet communicated their decision in the matter to this Government. The Officer is now undergoing treasury training at Nellore. There is an enquiry against him by the X-Branch C.I.D. and it has been decided that if the enquiry reveals corruption, India may be informed by wire that his nomination is withdrawn and that in his place, Sri Balaji Rao is recommended. Pending receipt of India's further communication, it seems premature to consider the Board's proposals for the relief of Sri Venkatachalam Naidu at present.

3. The Food & Agriculture Department have separately proposed to post Sri D.V.G. Rama Rao on the expiry of his leave on 22-7-51 as District Supply Officer, Chittoor vice Sri D. Koteswara Rao. Sri V. Veerabhadra Rao, Revenue Divisional Officer has been at Amalapuram for nearly a year and a half and there were certain allegations of corruption and misconduct against him. Although the allegations have not been proved, the Collector who made an enquiry into those allegations has expressed the view that the officer does not command the respect of the public and that he is not the proper type of officer for a rich delta taluk. The Board recently recommended his transfer as Special Deputy Collector Localisation of Ayacuts, Tungabhadra Project and in this Department notification dated 7-7-51, he has accordingly been posted to Special duty in the Tungabhadra Project. Sri Malakondayya, probationary Deputy Collector who completed his training on 14-7-51 has been posted in relief of Sri V. Veera-

4. In the circumstances stated in paras 2 & 3 above, it is for orders whether the Board may be asked to submit revised proposals for the posting of Sri D. Koteswara Rao immediately and for the relief of Sri S. Venkatachalam Naidu after India ~~Government~~ about his appointment as Asst. Commissioner and District Magistrate, Coorg is communicated to this Government.

DEPUTY COLLECTORS - POSTING.

From the Board of Revenue Ref:No.95/51, dated 11-7-51.

I am to say that pending receipt of India's communication regarding the appointment of S. Venkatachalam Naidu as Assistant Commissioner and District Magistrate, Coorg, it is premature to arrange for his relief. Further, the Government consider it unnecessary to disturb the posting of V. Veerabhadra Rao as Special Deputy Collector, Localisation of Ayacuts, Tungabhadra Project, Bellary recently made. I am accordingly to request the Board to submit revised proposals for the posting of D. Koteswara Rao immediately, and for the relief of S. Venkatachalam Naidu only after India's decision about his appointment as Asst. Commissioner & District Magistrate, Coor, is communicated to this Government.
